Chapter 1 by Elisabeth Ford

When I first met Pavi, I couldn't help but feel slightly intimidated...but turned on by him. Working as one of the genterns, I saw many all over him. But he looked at me differently compared to how he looked at the other genterns...Every look he gave me with those deep and dark eyes made me cringe. I loved him, but did he love me?

"name, come here darling." His sexy voice commanded of me. I did as he said, and to my surprise, he didn't force me onto his lap, he stood at attention and looked at me. "You're very beautiful, you know that, yes?"

I shook my head.

"I bet you say that to all the genterns Pavi."

"No no no, only you."

We carried on a casual conversation for hours, I found out he was actually very sweet, and hated the way he looked. Hence why he wore the mask. And, without me realising it, I touched his scared cheek and gently locked his lips with mine. His hands slightly gripped at my hair and our kisses became harder. I pulled away embarrassed.

"I'm so sorry! I didn't mean to!" I hid my face with my hands. He only stared at me, turning red under the mask. His tall and muscular figure pulled me close again and embraced me in a hug.

My petite body close against his, I could feel his heart against my chest.

"I love you name." He whispered. See more of Story Wars of my legs over his hip.

He bit my ear and tugged

"I want you..."

He stopped and carried me to his bed, slowly laying me down. Pavi tugged at my panties with his teeth and licked up my stomach only to kiss my breasts.

"May I?" he asked pulling my panties down. I nodded and he adjusted into me. I moaned out considering it was my first time. My nails dug into his back and my legs were thrown over his shoulders. He started slow
